In developing this policy the University had regard to the provisions of section 40B(1)(b) of the Human Rights Act 2004 (ACT).

1. PURPOSE:

1.1. This policy sets out the University of Canberra's principles and framework for the resolution of student grievances.

2. SCOPE:

2.1. This policy applies to student grievances relating to actions or decisions taken by the University and its staff, its education agents and other related third parties, including third party providers, whether of an academic or administrative nature. This may include grievances related to:

- a. the University's administration;
- b. learning support;
- c. teaching services; or
- d. breaches of the University's policies, including conduct by a staff member that is unprofessional or inappropriate in accordance with University policy or other applicable external accreditation or legislative standards.

2.2. This policy does not apply to grievances relating to academic judgement other than where a student asserts bias in the exercise of academic judgement.

2.3. The processes outlined in this policy to resolve grievances are available to current students of the University,

2.4. Past students, including students on intermission, and graduates may seek to resolve a grievance through these processes where the matter to which it relates occurred when they were a prospective student, current student or otherwise only with the permission of the Director, Student Life.

2.5. Except as expressly stipulated in this clause 2.5, student grievances in relation to the following matters cannot be addressed through the processes outlined in this policy:

- a. Grievances relating to circumstances that occurred over 12 months prior, except in the case of compelling or exceptional circumstances as determined by the Director, Student Life and, in relation to HELP remittance and admissions decisions, as determined by the Director, Student Connect.

- b. A decision made by an appropriate review authority in accordance with the Academic Progress Rules unless:
 - i. new evidence that was not available at the time of the decision becomes available which is likely to have affected the decision-maker's decision had it been available at the time; or
 - ii. a failure of process has occurred resulting in disadvantage to the student.
- c. Except where expressly permitted by the statute, rule or University policy, decisions made under a statute, rule or University policy including:
 - i. a decision made under the University of Canberra (Student Conduct) Rules;
 - ii. a decision made under the University of Canberra (Admission) Rules including:

 - B. to make an offer of admission subject to conditions; and
 - C. to refuse admission to an applicant; or
 - D. for a decision relating to a remittance of a HELP debt made by the Director, Student Connect.

3. PRINCIPLE:

- 3.1. The University approaches student grievance resolution, and devises student grievance resolution processes, according to the following guiding principles:
- a. Students and staff participate in the grievance resolution process in good faith. Grievances found to be vexatious, frivolous or lacking substance will be dismissed.
 - b. Grievance resolution processes are carried out in accordance with the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness. Accordingly, the University will:
 - i. inform the person complained about of the allegations against them in sufficient detail to enable them to understand the precise nature of the allegations and to properly consider and respond to them;
 - ii. inform all parties of the possible outcomes from the process;
 - iii. ensure that the person complained about is provided with a reasonable period within which to respond to the allegations, subject to the complexity and urgency of the matter;
 - iv. inform the student of their rights under this policy;
 - v. ensure the impartiality in any enquiry or investigation process and an absence of bias of any decision maker; and
 - vi. communicate any decision to all persons affected by it and include detailed reasons for the decision and the options for external appeal of the decision.
 - c. Students and staff are treated respectfully and fairly throughout the grievance resolution process.
 - d. Students will not suffer any form of disadvantage, including a financial disadvantage, because they make a complaint, and all processes set out in this policy will be applied consistently, fairly and without reprisal against the student.
 - e. Student confidentiality is maintained throughout the grievance resolution process in accordance with applicable privacy legislation and the University's privacy policy.

- f. Student grievances are resolved as quickly as possible, facilitated by the processes outlined in clause 4
- g. Effective, reciprocal communication and feedback underpins the relationship between all parties in the grievance process.
- h. Actions undertaken to resolve student grievances are recorded, communicated to all affected parties and implemented promptly.
- i. Grievances provide valuable input to the continuous improvement of programs, policies, procedures and services of the University, and are monitored and acted upon accordingly.
- j. Grievance procedures and the support available to students are widely publicised to facilitate access to the grievance resolution process.

4. STUDENT GRIEVANCE RESOLUTION FRAMEWORK (FRAMEWORK)

4.1 The Framework outlines the steps available to a student to resolve:

- a. grievances about administrative matters; and
- b. grievances about academic matters.

4.2 A flowchart of the steps in the Framework is provided at Appendix 1.

4.3 The steps in the process are as follows:

- a. Informal resolution (available for academic matters only): clause 4.5.
- b. Formal resolution: clause 4.6.
- c. Appeal: clause 4.7.
- d. External review: clause 4.8

4.4 A student is not obliged to undertake all steps in the process. Having commenced the grievance process, a student may elect to withdraw from the process and accept the decision made by the relevant party at any stage of this process (whether in the student's favour or not), or to proceed to the next stage of the process.

4.5 Informal Resolution

- a. Informal resolution of student grievances is applicable only to academic matters.
- b. The onus rests with the student to address the grievance informally in the first instance.
- c. Students should begin the grievance resolution process by attempting to resolve the matter informally with the individual closest to the source of the grievance. For example, this may be:
 - i. a tutor;
 - ii. a lecturer; or
 - iii. a unit convenor.
- d. Students may approach the relevant staff member whose action or decision has led to the grievance by:
 - i. writing to them; and/or
 - ii. speaking with them face to face.
- e. Notwithstanding the above, a student is free to address their grievance to any individual or body identified in this policy as having responsibility in relation to a particular category of grievance.

- f. If approaching the individual closest to the grievance does not resolve the matter, or if the student feels uncomfortable to do so, the student should approach the relevant Discipline Lead or Head of School to seek a resolution. This is the final step in the informal resolution of a grievance.

4.6 Formal Resolution

a. Academic Grievances:

- i. If the informal resolution fails to resolve an academic grievance, the student may seek formal resolution of the matter.
- ii. To initiate formal resolution, students must set out the details of their grievance to the relevant Dean, Associate Dean, Line Manager or Director by either:

f. Consideration of appeal by the Committee
